Classes Begin June 1, 2008

History of Fundamentalism (Pastor Kent Hobi—Sundays 6:00—7:45pm) 2 credits

We have been warned that those who do not learn the lessons of the past are doomed to repeat their failures! To fail to learn from church history is equivalent to jeopardizing gospel truth in our generation. This class is a must for anyone serious about sidestepping the pitfalls of liberalism and aberrant religious movements with the goal of “contending for the faith once delivered to the saints.” History is the best teacher because it paints a clear portrait of events that enable us to compare with our present situation in fundamentalism. Don’t miss it! *Note: This class is required for all GCM Elders and Deacons. First Class—June 1.

Textbooks:

In Pursuit of Purity, David O. Beale, ISBN #0890843503, $15.00;

Christianity and Liberalism, J. Gresham Machen, ISBN #0802811213, $11.00.

Beginning Greek I (Pastor Kent Hobi—Tuesdays 6:30—9:10pm) 3 credits

An understanding of the language in which our New Testaments were first written is invaluable for more than one reason. It allows us to understand essential shades of meaning which lie behind our English translations, it equips us with the ability to make intelligent grammatical and theological decisions when reading the opinions of Christian scholars, and it arms us to defend our faith against inaccurate or even heretical statements made about the text of our New Testaments. For these reasons and more, we invite you to join us for this important class this summer! First Class—June 3.

Textbooks:

Basics of Biblical Greek (Grammar), 2nd Ed., Wm. D. Mounce, ISBN #0310250870, $28.00;

Basics of Biblical Greek (Workbook), 2nd Ed., Wm. D. Mounce, ISBN #0310250862, $15.00;

English Grammar to Ace New Testament Greek, Samuel Larson, ISBN #0310255341, $9.00.

*Please see back cover for important information.
